

Panel Topic:

American College Students Study in China: Perceptions, Experience and Outcomes

Co-chair: Shuming Lu, City University of New York-Brooklyn College
Dongdong Chen, Seton Hall University

Panelists:

Jennifer Tam [jennifertam215@gmail.com], City University of New York-Brooklyn College

My New China: How My Study Abroad Experience Changed My Outlook?

ALITY AGHEDO [arlingtonsway@gmail.com], City University of New York--York College

My Cultural Experience of Chinese Education during the study in China trip

Robin Li [robin.echizen@yahoo.com], City University of New York-City College
CUNY-BC Study in China Program: Perceptions, Meanings & Impact

Angeline Pierre [pangie1289@gmail.com], City University of New York-Brooklyn College

“Preserving of Chinese Culture in the midst of Globalization”

Raquel Irizarry [ri2startraks@yahoo.com], City University of New York-Brooklyn College

The Commonality of Facial Human Expression: My Experience of Chinese Soap Opera during the Study in China Trip

Emily Livaudais, emilylivaudais@yahoo.com, Seton Hall University
Brent G Findon, brent.findon@student.shu.edu, Seton Hall University
Greer V Below, greer.below@student.shu.edu, Seton Hall University

China in My Eyes: Views from Students of Seton Hall University

These three panelists participated in the Seton Hall University at Peking University Program in the summer of 2015. They will present learning experience by discussing (i) their discovery in China; (ii) their interaction with Peking University students; (iii) their research on China's rising.